THIS IS AN INVITATION TO JOIN ME IN HELPING OUR COMMUNITY!

*Every single person knows someone who has experienced challenges with mental health.
The truth is, it affects us all. We are all in this together.*

Below I list some of the ways YOU can actively participate ~ Assist me in saving my daughter's life and engage in my mission to create change in many lives.

By supporting the work that I have done and the work I have yet to do, you are promoting art, creativity and mental health! Help me spread awareness, hope and life changing research.

This information is vital, not only for mental health, but countless physical illnesses such as diabetes, cancers, autoimmune diseases, heart disease & many more. I have given hundreds of hours compiling & simplifying research from biochemists, doctors, PubMed & other sources.
